

PRODUCER'S LETTER OF INTENT

Project Title: Thabantsho (Dark mountain)

Format: Feature Film

Production Company: Tebogofilm Production

Date: 08 January 2026

I Vicforia Mojekwu hereby confirm my intention to produce the project titled Thabantsho

As the producer attached to this project, I am fully committed to overseeing its development, production, and delivery in line with industry best practices and the requirements of the funding body. I believe strongly in the creative and cultural value of this project and in its potential to resonate with South African audiences while remaining accessible to international markets.

Thabantsho is a story that explores culture, and it aligns closely with my producing focus on [e.g. socially relevant storytelling, authentic South African narratives, emerging voices]. I am confident that this project contributes meaningfully to the local film and television landscape.

Through Tebogofilm Production, I bring 20 years of experience in film and television production, with a proven track record of delivering projects from development through to broadcast and/or distribution. I am satisfied that the project is creatively sound, logistically feasible, and financially realistic within the proposed budget and production plan.

Should funding be approved, I undertake to:

- Manage the project responsibly and transparently
- Ensure compliance with all contractual, legal, and reporting obligations

- Employ local cast and crew where possible
- Deliver the project to the agreed technical and creative standards

This letter serves as confirmation of my full commitment to [Project Title] and my intention to see the project through to completion.

Yours sincerely,

V.mojekwu
